PROPOSALS SOUGHT FOR HUMANITIES RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

MISSOULA--

Montana Committee for the Humanities at The University of Montana-Missoula has fellowship money available for humanities research relating to Montana and the region. The deadline for receipt of fellowship proposals is Aug. 20.

Preference may be given to Montana residents; however, applicants may include any legal resident of the United States who demonstrates evidence of interest and accomplishment in the field of the humanities. Scholars and writers not seeking degrees are encouraged to apply. Typically no more than three fellowship of up to $4,000 will be awarded, with funds available Nov. 1.

MCH is an independent nonprofit affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. The humanities include such areas as history, philosophy, languages, linguistics, archaeology, jurisprudence, ethics, comparative religions; the history and criticism of art and literature, and those aspects of the social sciences and environmental studies that involve humanistic perspectives.

For more information and application materials, call (406) 243-6022 or write Montana Committee for the Humanities, 311 Brantly Hall, The University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812.
